

NOTICE TO MICHIGAN LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

The Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards will hold public hearings throughout Michigan during the week of January 7. The Commission is currently examining its responsibilities with regard to the issue of “regular employment.” The purpose of these hearings will be to gather input from law enforcement agencies concerning utilization of part time law enforcement officers. Hearings are scheduled at the times and locations shown below. Please plan on attending to voice your thoughts and concerns!

Monday, January 8, 2007 10:00 A.M. Auburn Hills Public Safety Building 1899 Squirrel Road Auburn Hills	Wednesday, January 10, 2007 11:00 A.M. Bay College MTEC Center 2000 North 30th Street Escanaba
Thursday, January 11, 2007 10:00 A.M. MTEC Center at Kirtland 60 Livingston Blvd. Gaylord	Friday, January 12, 2007 10:00 A.M. Library of Michigan Auditorium 702 West Kalamazoo Lansing

In the event you are unable to attend one of these sessions, MCOLES representatives will be available to receive your comments at the 2007 Mid-Winter Conference of the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, January 31-February 2, 2007 in Grand Rapids.
